Rooted cuttings, 35 cents per dozen; $2.50 per 100.

"Daybreak"—Too much cannot be said in praise of this grand Carnation. The color is exquisite, a charming shade of flesh pink. It was this delicate shade which suggested its name of "Daybreak," because of the similarity to the first faint tinge of pink seen in the eastern sky at sunrise. Specimens of this fine new early pink Chrysanthemum were passed upon by the judges at the World's Fair, and the exhibitor was awarded a medal and diploma, the points noted in the latter being earliness, size, form, color and vigor of vigor of growth. It is a seedling from Puritan and Mrs. Alpheus Hardy, and has the fine form of the later variety, but the color is a beautiful pearly pink.

Eugene Dailledouze.

This is considered the crowning glory of the year in new Chrysanthemums. Everyone wants a grand yellow—large, full, double, glowing in color, stiff stem and good foliage, and above all, a free, easy grower—and here it is in Dailledouze.

There is nothing brighter or clearer among yellows: the center is folded close, like Kioto, the outer petals are broad and incurving, and of great substance. It is full to the last degree, of great depth, and perfect in form.

INTER-OCEAN.

This is a grand novelty of the general type of V. Morsl, from which it is a seedling. The color is a delightful, glistening, pearly white, with light suffusion of pink. Petals of great substance, recurving, forming a flower one-third larger than the usual V. Morel.

BEAU IDEAL.

Beau Ideal is a bright rose pink, without touch of lavender shadings. The form is a somewhat flat incurved, the outer petals horizontal, showing a lighter shade. The petals are broad and of good substance, flower of fine size, stem stiff, foliage first-rate.

CHALLENGE.

The great golden globe "Challenge" is a late variety, being in full perfection November 25th to 30th. Before that time the center florets have not taken on their true character, although it is in grand condition throughout the month. The flower is a perfect globe of gold, which finally shows a pointed center.

YELLOW QUEEN.

(May.) The finest very early variety ever introduced, having been cut for the past two seasons in fine condition on the 10th of October. Very large, clear bright yellow with extra stout stem and foliage.

CHARLES DAVIS.

An English sport from V. Morel, which it resembles in all save color, which is a terra cotta or old rose, shading to clear yellow at the center. Like V. Morel, it undergoes a great change in color as it matures, and is often found a clear yellow, which led to its being characterized as the "Golden v. Morel." A grand exhibition sort.

CLINTON CHALFANT.

[W. A. Chalfant] A bright yellow sport from Joseph H. White, which it exactly resembles in all points except color. This must prove a valuable pot variety, like its progenitor.

New Ostrich Plume Chrysanthemum.

Enfant des D. Mondes—[Crozy] The white sport from Louis Boehmer. We predict that this variety will displace Mrs. A. Hardy; first, because it is a strong, free grower; second, because it perfects its flowers readily; and third, because the bloom is of grand size and build. The color is creamy white, shading to pure white; it is very heavily plumed. Fine for cut bloom or for exhibition. Price, 10 cents each; 75 cents per doz.; $5.00 per 100.

New Rosy-Blush "Ostrich Plume" Wm. Falconer—The color is an exquisite shade of rosy blush, changing to a delicate flesh pink, as the flowers advance in age. The delicacy of tinting is without a parallel in any class of flowers within our knowledge. Price, 6 cts. each each; 60 per dozen; $4.00 per 100.

The Pink Ostrich Plume Chrysanthemum, Louis Bœhmer—The "Louis Bœhmer" has the same wonderful hair-like growth or excrescence that appeared for the first time in the white variety, "Mrs. Alpheus Hardy," but it differs from it in color, having a most beautiful shade of lavender pink on the ends of the petals. Price, 5 cents each; 50 cents per dozen; $4.00 per 100.

Price, 6 cents each; 50 cents per doz.; $4.00 per 100.
